On Friday, February 19th, 1886, at 5 o'clock p. m , James B. Curry, at his residence in this city, passed quietly away, surrounded by his family and a few friends. It is with heartfelt sor row that we record the death of this highly respect d and much beloved citizen. Mr. Curry was born in Crawfordsville, Indiana, Mostgomery county, March 10, 1824, and was the only son, of Dr. Thomas Curry, a prominent physician of that place He emigrated from there to Sioux City, Iows, in 1856, agent at Maitland, has a severe case of af little Chassey McKinnney. Kindly Remembered.

Last Friday night week Rev. Christy and wife were particularly requested to meet with the M. E church choir at the residence of Dr. King of this city, as special business demanded their presence. The parson and his wife wended their way to the Doctors residence wondering what the "special business" could be. They found more than the usual number in the choir awaiting their coming. The choir went through with their usual practice, cothing "special" had yet occured. After all was quiet the graceful form and beautiful face of the Hon. R. I. Rea made his appearance into the room with something in his bands which the parson thought was a lap robe or horse blanket But when the Hon Rea unfolded it, to the surprise of the Rev. and his wife, it turned out to be a beautiful crazy quit composed of a 1000 pieces which was presented by Mr. Rea to Mrs. C. in bchalf of her many friends in this city. Below is the presentation speech of Mr. Rea and also the response of Mrs. Christy, and the names of those who fornished blocks for the quilt.

Mrs. C. allow me in behalf of a few of your many friends in this city to present you with this crazy quilt as a slight token of their love and affection. And white each block with its nitials of one or more persons represents one or as intimating that these are a representation of are as numerous as the several pieces compos and uniform in their character and habits than these pieces are in shape And while the quili upon it in after years in this its hopeless and cipless crazy condition when far away from the friends who made it so, may the memory of those your heart and affections, and in its lucid intervalls if it has any may it shelter you and yours from the chilly winds of Adversity. Hoping that you and Mr. C. may have a long and happy life and as this quilt is composed of little pieces, may all your troubles in life be little ones.
